What makes it fun

Rewards only. Nothing decays, nobody gets shamed for not crafting.

Guild rep

10 rep per item donated, scaled by the recipe's trivial level. Urgent tasks pay double. Finishing a claim before it expires adds 25%.

Ranks

Recruit → Supplier → Quartermaster → Warden. Quartermaster unlocks Self-serve pickup. Lifetime rep never drops; only the weekly board resets.

Weekly suppliers

Top three donors sit in the pinned board and reset Monday. Claiming a task shows your name next to it, so people see who is carrying the night.

Expeditions

A banker loads a preset, like /bank expedition "Deep Weald run". Targets jump for a week, the board fills with tasks, and a countdown shows how stocked the raid is. Fully stocked means it is a go.
